SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. On 4 July a South Korean Air Force P-51 was hit by North Korean tank fire and badly damaged three miles north of Suwon. The pilot, Colonel LEE Kum-suk, dived into the North Korean tank in a crash landing, destroying it and killing himself.
2. On 4 July at 6:00p.m.* Incheon was held by the South Korean Army. and the South Korean defense lines extended southeast to Chungju (127-56, 36-58). At this same time, the North Korean Army, using infantry troops and no heavy equipment, was advancing south to Umsong (127-42, 36-56).
3. On 27 June during an engagement with North Korean troops near Uijongbu, the South Korean Army General CHOE Pyong-tak personally witnessed Soviet personnel among the North Korean troops. He claimed that the enemy tank crews were half Soviet and half North Korean troops. As of 5 July the South Korean Government had received no information on any Soviet jet aircraft which were in combat.
4. On 2 July a Peiping radio broadcast reported that approximately 200,000 Chinese Communist troops, fully equipped, were massing north of Antung (124-18, 40-10). These troops were arriving from the Mukden area.
5. The radio broadcasts from Pyongyang, Haeju, and Seoul are very demoralizing to the South Korean population.
6. On 3 July/Kumyangjang, the first American troops engaged the enemy. The American troops were supported by South Korean troops.
